8. Additional Provisions:

Default has occurred in the payment of the Loan Agreement and the Promissory Note and in the performance of the obligations of the Deed of Trust. Because of that default, Lender, the owner and holder of the Loan Agreement and Promissory Note, has requested that a Substitute Trustee sell the Property. In compliance with Texas Property Code section 51.002(d), Lender sent notice of default, suspension, and acceleration to Debtor by Certified United States Mail, Return Receipt Requested, and by Federal Express on April 5, 2024. The Notice of Default provided a ten-day cure period to cure the default.

The Deed of Trust may encumber both real and personal property. Formal notice is given of Lender's election to proceed against and sell both the real property and any personal property described in the Deed of Trust in accordance with Lender's rights and remedies under the Deed of Trust and Section 9.604(a) of the Texas Business and Commerce Code.

Notice is given that on and at the Date, Time, and Place for the Foreclosure Sale described above, a Substitute Trustee will sell the Property in accordance with the Terms of Sale described above, the Deed of Trust, and applicable Texas law.

If Lender passes the Foreclosure Sale, notice of the date of any rescheduled foreclosure sale will be reposted and refiled in accordance with the posting and filing requirements of the Deed of Trust and the Texas Property Code.

The Foreclosure Sale will be made expressly subject to any title matters set forth in the Deed of Trust, but prospective bidders are reminded that by law the Foreclosure Sale will be made subject to all prior matters of record affecting the Property, if any, to the extent that they remain in force and effect and have not been released or subordinated to the Deed of Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, the Foreclosure Sale will not cover any part of the Property that has been released of public record by Lender from the security interest of the Deed of Trust. Prospective bidders are urged to examine the applicable property records to determine the nature and extent of such matters, if any.
